

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Channel M Diversity in Cultures Award

Channel M along with the LEO AWARDS and The Motion Picture Arts & Sciences Foundation of British Columbia are proud to announce a Call for Entries for the second Channel M Diversity in Cultures Award.

What Can Enter

Treatments or Story Outlines for a Documentary Program promoting the ideals of diversity in the many cultures that make up British Columbia.

Who Can Enter

It must be demonstrated that the directing mind and control of the creative and financial aspects of the Program will rest with British Columbia based individuals, defined as someone who is a Canadian citizen or has permanent residence status, and has maintained a residence in British Columbia for the 12 month period ending December 31, 2005.

Entry Requirements

Please submit the following:

1. a one page treatment or story outline
2. a development budget and financing scenario
3. a production budget and financing scenario
4. a list of confirmed funding, license, broadcast, exhibition, or distribution commitments
5. a brief biography of the writer, director, and producer
6. a development and production schedule.

After adjudication by a jury consisting of industry peers and representatives from Channel M, the successful applicant will be awarded a $10,000 cash prize towards the completion of the development or production of their Program.

Deadline For Submissions

Monday, April 17th, 2006. Entries received after the deadline will be returned unopened.

Please forward submissions directly to the LEO AWARDS offices at:
